MEET THE TEAM

A Q&A WITH ADRIANA PÉREZ-MITRE

Adriana Pérez-Mitre, CMP
Director of Groups & Conventions
Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun

Q: When coordinating an event, what are some of the key/critical things you do to ensure that the event is uniquely tailored to each group and their attendees?
A: The key is to know in advance what is the purpose of the meeting; the company's goals, objectives and group profile in order to accommodate and exceed their expectations. Flexibility and assuring the participants have a memorable stay is critical. This is why we have repeat business!
Q: What is one of the most memorable events you hosted at Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun, can you describe it?
A: Each event is unique and special for us. A highlight would be our event for PENTAIR; a pouring rain almost spoiled our 1300 guest's Gala Dinner on the terrace. As trained, our experienced resort staff quickly reacted to the surprise storm and in just 15 minutes, the team executed a solution to place the event back on track, it was quite the challenge to overcome. Furthermore, the event was rated a huge success by the attendees!
Q: In your experience, why do you think Mexico, and Cancun more specifically, is such a desirable destination for group meetings and incentives?
A: The combination of our Resort's availability to meet and exceed all the group's needs; along with, beautiful beaches, archeological sites, gastronomy, kind and warm staff, flexibility and creativity, and a safe destination - all of these attributes make Cancun, and Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach specifically, a perfect match for our guests!
Q: What is the most favorite part of your job?
A: Exceeding expectations of our clients and delivering a seamless, memorable program each and every time. My absolute favorite aspect of my job is to listen after executing a program to our clients as they rave about their experience (staff, food, resort, etc.)! It makes everything worthwhile.
